

A photograph of a family in a modern living room. A woman in a pink shirt and blue jeans sits on a light-colored sofa, looking down at her hands. A man in a maroon shirt and white shorts kneels on the floor, interacting with a young child sitting on the carpet. A low, grey, rectangular ottoman sits in the center, holding a wooden tray with a potted plant and a smartphone. A large, grey, armchair is positioned near a window with white curtains. A potted plant is visible on the right side of the frame. The text "Klik hier om het woonmagazine te bekijken" is overlaid in the center of the image.
