

A man with grey hair and glasses is sitting on a brown leather sofa, reading a magazine. He is wearing a dark blue sweater and jeans. The sofa has several cushions, including a light-colored textured one and a grey one. In the background, there is a large window with light-colored curtains. A modern floor lamp with two cylindrical shades is visible. To the left, a white armchair and a potted orchid are partially visible. On the right wall, there is a colorful abstract painting. The text "Klik hier om het woonmagazine te bekijken" is overlaid in the center of the image.
