

The image shows a contemporary interior space. In the foreground, a large, dark, textured dining table is partially visible. On it sits a round wooden tray with a white ceramic vase containing a green plant and two lit black candles. The background features a bright living room with a light-colored sofa, a coffee table, and large windows that let in natural light. A large abstract painting is on the wall to the left.

Klik hier om het
woonmagazine te
bekijken